Terms & Conditions

Please note that after the first week's taster session, that there are, unfortunately, no refunds for missed sessions. Children should be encouraged to come along ready for learning, respectful of others and prepared to stick to safety rules. Please pack a water bottle for your child to have for the session to maximise learning. Whilst every effort will be made to create a safe learning environment, accidents and injuries can sometimes occur. We reserve the right to ask a child to leave the course (with a refund for outstanding sessions provided) or to cancel the course due to insufficient numbers, staff illness or unforeseen circumstances. A full refund of any outstanding sessions will be provided and you will be notified by email with as much notice as the situation allows.

Jayne Wright and Flourishing Schools shall not be responsible for the loss, or damage, of or to any property or to any person arising from the booking of or participation in the activities or on the journey to or from the session.

We ask that children are to be collected promptly from the course and for parents/carers to work with their child to encourage the tasks to be completed between sessions.
